

From: Frank Disparted
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/5/02 1:48am
Subject: MS SETTLEMENT

Microsoft is a great company and should be left alone, so it can direct its energies to making new and better products.

I think the issue with Microsoft is like shooting your self in the foot. This is one company that has brought prosperity to our country. As a user of MS products, they are great, work well, and are dependable. That's more than I can say of our government.